

Masraf Al Ravan is silver sponsor

Masraf Al Rayan has announced its participation for the second consecutive year as the silver sponsor for second UITP Large Events Summit

Summit. Adel Mustafawi, Group Executive Officer at Masraf Al Rayan, said: "We are pleased to participate in this very to participate in this very important event. The evolving partnership with such a vital company as Mowsalat is a clear manifestation of the bank's commitment towards its social responsibility in line with the Qatar Vision 2030. Mustafawi said: "Development of an effective public transportation sector is a key pillar of any sustainable economic development process and the solutions process and the solutions that would come through this event. It will definitely add value to many innovations that would enable us establish an effective and establish an effective and efficient state of the art public transportation sector in the country." Masraf AI Rayan, one of the leading banks in Qatar, has ranked high among the Islamic banks in Qatar and the region

0

Villeroy & Boch

transport summit today

The UITP Mena Public Transport for Large Events Summit is set to begin to-day at the Qatar National Convention Centre. The summit will focus on sofatr and security for on safety and security for transportation in large events. The summit has come

The summit has come at a time when Qatar is investing heavily on developing an efficient public transport in-frastructure through a rail metro of interna-tional standards and others. The world-class roads network. The meeting spread over three days will fea-ture such topics as the 'public transport infra-structure at large sport extravaganzas like FIFA World Cup held in Brazil earlier this year and 2012 London Olympics among others.

others. The sessions on taxis will cover regu-lation, technical specifications, new technologies and many operational issues.

a world network.

Besides from the re-gion's countries, speakers are expected from Europe, South America and Asia. Mowasalat chief execu-South America and Asia. Mowasalat Chief execu-tive officer Khalid Nasser al-Hail yesterday said through the UTTP summit, the country hopes to make use of the knowledge and expertise of experts with extensive experience in different areas of public transportation. "It is an opportunity for the local stakeholders to learn from the experi-ences of densely populated cities in Asia like Shanghai, Seoul, Tokyo and Delhi how they ad-dressed the transport re-quirements of the public during large sport ex-travaganzas that each of them hosted in the last one decade," said Nass-er al-Khanji, executive director, Mowasalat.

Prime Minister to open

director, Mowasalat. Secretary General of UITP Alain Flausch (Bel-gium) will participate in a number of sessions. The Prime Minister and Interior Minister HE Abdullah bin Nasser bin

Khalifa al-Thani will open the summit. The Trans-port Minister HE Jassem bin Saif Ahmed al-Sulati and Secretary General of Qatar Supreme Commit-tee of Delivery and Legacy Hassan al-Thawadi will address the proceedings. CITEC Geneva presi-dent Franco Tufo will de-liwar tha kewanda address

The Prime Minister and Interior Minister HE Abdullah bin Nasser bin Khalifa al-Thani

International Islamic 'strategic sponsor'

Thermational Islamic will support the second total Association of Public tanda Association of Public tanounced vesteday. Addubasit A al-Shabel, their executive officer, In-sandra and the second tank's support of the event as a strategic sponsor was in insert to the second tation-building activities. Mustry: The development of substry: The development of substry the development of the sequences of the second substry the development of substry the de

Public Transport (UITP). Al-Shaibei also said all forms of transport were crucial these days, be it through land, water or air. He expressed delight at the expected participa-tion of a huge number of lamic was proud to associate with Mowasalat, the host of delegates from some 92 countries in the UITP. countries in the UITP. The theme of this year's conference will be: "manage-ment of major events from the transportation point of view and taxb business?" An exhibition will also be held on the sidelines of the con-ference at the Qatar National Convention Centre (QNCC). The International Islamthe second summit of the International Association of Abdulbasit A al-Shaibei, second right, and Khalid Nasser al-Hail, second left, with Khalid Hassan Kafoud and Jamal al-Jamal announcing International Islamic bank's support of the second summit of the International Association of Public Transport (UITP).

announced at a joint press conference held yesterday and addressed by al-Shaibei and Mowasalat CEO Khalid Nasser al-Hail. International Islamic ic's support of the ever

International Islamic deputy CEO Jamal al-Jamal and Mowasalat public rela-tions and communication manager, Khalid Hassan Kafoud were also present.

^r Training manuals Corporate nev * Letter heads Envelopes * Invitations Certificates

* Coupons

D cards

NATIONAL DAY 2014 SPONSORED BY Official Sponsor 💥 QNB ՄՄՈ Diamond Sponsor Platinum Sponsors البنك التجاري COMMERCIAL BANK 69 قطرللبترول UDC WOODD Qatar Petroleum Gold Sponsors المصرف (810 QATAR ODB Silver Sponsors شرقة عبدالله عبدالغيني وإقوانه ذ.م.م Abdullah Abdulohani & Bros Co WLL ولغين DOLPHIN ExonMobil مصرف الريان MASRAF AL RAYAN TOYOTA اللابيداع العنقاري For more information: 44245566 - 44243183 info@ndqatar.com

Salwa main road, Rawada Center, Doha, tel.: 44363561 Cirv Center, tel.: 44930445

SALE up to 50%

Tableware, crystal, silverware & gift items