

Stefano MANELLI

Head of Events

Department

Partner and member of Board of Directors

- Graduated from the Polytechnic of Turin and Lausanne (EPFL), he conducted studies on the mobility of the Olympics in and Sydney 2000, Athens 2004 and Turin 2006 (Prof. Bovy)
- From 2003 to 2006 he worked at TOROC to develop the transport plan for the Turin 2006 Winter Olympic Games, dealing with urban mobility and the connection to mountain areas
- Partner at Citec since 2006, as director of Italy and responsible for the Events product, he has managed, among others, projects such as: Annecy 2018 and Istanbul 2020 candidacy, demand studies for Sochi 2014 and FIFA World Cup 2018, the mobility for the Ryder Cup 2018 and Ryder Cup 2022, etc.
- Since 2007 UEFA consultant, with responsibility for the development of the mobility and transport plans of UEFA Euro 2008, 2012, 2016, 2020, as well as assisting UEFA in the preparation for the UCLF UEFA Champions League Final in Milan 2016 and Kiev 2018
- For FIFA, he contributed to the development of the candidacy requirements and carried out the analysis of the transport dossiers for the FIFA World Cup 2026
- From 2012 to 2015 he was advisor to the IOC International Olympic Committee, as transport consultant of the Tokyo 2020 and Beijing 2022 evaluation committees and assisted in the planning phases of Pyeongchang 2018. For Sochi 2014 he carried out specific missions on aspects related to the demand for mobility, railway and airport elements
- In 2015 appointed by the Application Committee for Paris 2024 to manage the development of the mobility concept together with local public partners and the drafting of the Application Dossier, since 2018 he is director of the transport technical assistance mission for the Organizing Committee Paris 2024
- Since 2018 he has been working alongside the Sport and Health working group for the Milan Cortina 2026 application and has guaranteed technical support for the requests of the IOC
- UITP Knowledge Partner and lecturer at various institutes, including HES-SO Geneva and AISTS, master in sports management promoted by IOC and EPFL
- He directs the headquarters of Citec Italia taking care of the supervision of transport and mobility engineering studies on behalf of public bodies (Municipalities and Mobility Agencies) in Italy and Italian Switzerland, such as urban mobility plans, regional cycle mobility programs, studies and demand patterns, etc.